

N.H.S. Board Takes First Step Towards Forming School Area

The Newmarket high school board Monday night voted to request dissolution of the present high school district for Newmarket high school and to ask the formation of a high school area embracing a larger district. The request of the board is in keeping with the policy of York county council which has been urging the formation of larger school areas with provision of better schools.

The new high school area for Newmarket high school, as visualized by J. W. Lockhart, principal, would include all of Newmarket, all of East Gwillimbury, part of North Gwillimbury, including Mount Albert, King township north of Schomberg and part of Whitechurch. The formation of the high school area carries with it provision of improved bus service for outlying pupils.

The formation of high school areas is figured on the principle that the minimum enrolment for a high school should be no less than 300 pupils, said Mr. Lockhart. "A school of 300 pupils can provide most of the courses in secondary education, including shopwork, home economics, agriculture, commercial and academic courses."

"Such a school can best be financed in an area with 10,000 population and $10,000,000 assessment. By centralizing all costs on the one school and providing bus service to bring in pupils from the outer sections of the area, a better education in a better school can be provided."

"Would such an area increase the enrolment at the school?" asked R. L. Boag. "Yes," replied Mr. Lockhart. "At the present time, the northern part of the county is paying for the maintenance of schools in the southern part of the county instead of maintenance of their own schools," said W. J. Geer, chairman of the board. "Under the school area plan, each area would

No Sunday Tennis Playing High School Board Rules

J. W. Lockhart, principal of the Newmarket high school, told the high school board Monday night that he had received complaints regarding the use of the Newmarket high school tennis courts on Sunday.

At the present time, there is one good net for the high school courts which is taken across the street to a private home each night when the players are through. The pupils can get the net whenever they wish to play. A second net is not removable.

Referring to the complaints, Mr. Lockhart asked the board to define its policy regarding Sunday playing. "I would just as soon have them playing tennis as loitering around Main St. Sunday," said A. N. Belugin. "There are a lot worse things they could be doing," added George D. Bender.

"There are times to play and not to play," said R. D. Brown. W. J. Patterson said he was against playing tennis on Sunday. The board decided to refuse the use of the new tennis net Sundays, after it had been pointed out that there was no play on town courts on Sunday.

PARISH PRIEST W. D. MUCKLE HAS NEW POST

Word has been received by Rev. W. D. Muckle, D.C.L., St. John's parish priest, of a transfer to Our Lady of Lourdes parish at Sherbourne and Earl Sts. in downtown Toronto. June 23 will be Dr. Muckle's last Sunday in the parish he has served for the past 11 years.

His successor is Rev. Thomas McCabe, formerly parish priest at Brampton and only lately discharged from the services where he served as padre at Brampton military camp. Rev. McCabe was a classmate of Dr. Muckle and is an athletic fan with emphasis on hockey.
For five and a half years of his stay here, Dr. Muckle was a padre at the Newmarket military camp. For six months before the war, a pre-aviation school was conducted here under his sponsorship with 200 pupils from Newmarket and district.

His parish has undergone many changes during Dr. Muckle's term. Five years ago, the Sisters of Providence came to Newmarket, purchasing their own convent on Main St. In charge of the Bradford mission. Dr. Muckle saw it expand to the position of a separate parish. Under his leadership, a mission was organized in the Keswick area and a chapel constructed for summer congregations which have numbered as many as 500.
Active in all phases of community life, Dr. Muckle was a member of the Newmarket high school board for 11 years and lately has been a member of the Newmarket Community Recreation Council. He has taken an active part in veterans' affairs here and his church has given donations towards compiling a "memory book" of Newmarket's war activities.

Mr. McNelly served four and a half years in the R.C.A.F., including two years of operational flying overseas as a navigator. He received his discharge a year and a half ago and has been teaching at Cobden, Ont.

The removal of the east curb must wait until the wires in front of the stores are removed to the rear so the poles can be taken out.

Little Co-operation Seen In Pest War, Joint Effort Urged

No heavy sales of D.D.T. spray for mosquitoes have been reported in town and it is the opinion of members of the Newmarket board of health that the citizens of Newmarket are not doing their share in attempting to rid the town of mosquitoes.

Dr. J. H. Wesley, medical officer of health for Newmarket, reported this week that two men sprayed the marshy areas about town and along the creek beds with an oil spray and that they will continue to spray every three weeks throughout the summer.

This program is the same as last year and was adopted by the board of health when it was found that more elaborate precautions, including the spraying of mosquito breeding areas to a half mile outside of town, too expensive.

It was thought that by using last year's methods and calling upon the citizens to look after

Stricter Diphtheria Control Urged By Medical Officer

ADVANTAGES OF PRE-SCHOOL CHECK

Within the next few days, a pre-school health clinic for children, who will be entering Newmarket grade schools next fall, will be announced. The clinic is important to the welfare of every child. In September, they will be starting a new phase of their growth. The clinic will enable them to make that start on the best footing.

How necessary such clinics are is seen in the statistics supplied by the public health nurse, Miss Helen B. Gardiner. Miss Gardiner estimates that 40 percent of children entering school are found to have some physical defect, in many cases, one which can be corrected before the child enters school.

Here are a few questions every parent of a child about to enter school should ask themselves:

Has your child been vaccinated against smallpox? Has he had toxoid to protect him against diphtheria?

Are his eyes, his ears and throat in good condition?

Does he have adequate sleep?

Does he have sufficient and suitable food at regular meal times?

Does he have plenty of play in the open air? Has he regular toilet habits?

Is your child learning to manage his own rubbers, goloshes and snow suit? Is his clothing large enough to be easily removed? Can he go to the toilet by himself, wash his face and hands and use a handkerchief?

The child who has robust health with all physical defects corrected is likely to be happier and to make greater progress in school than one whose health is uncertain or who is handicapped by a physical defect. The progress and enjoyment of a child in school is largely dependent upon home training and upon the medical and dental care he has received.

LAXNESS SHOWN IN PUBLIC CONDUCT

Public washroom facilities in theatres, restaurants, railway and bus stations are placed there largely for the convenience of the public. Yet, despite all efforts by the management to keep such facilities clean, there persist the anonymous few who scrawl inscriptions on the walls and generally behave as if such facilities were animal pens and themselves the animals.

Such evidence of poor breeding, lack of concern for the interests of others and the rights of property owners, are the despair of restaurant keepers, and operators of other public places where such facilities exist. In some public places, the management has found it necessary to keep washrooms locked in order to keep them decent.

The condition of public washrooms is only one example of general slackness in observing the courtesies of public conduct. The standard of manners which was current 25 years ago has fallen to a low level with the relaxation of the influence of home training. In the changing environment of our times, public morals have so deteriorated that, as an example, a public conversation carried on in a local restaurant in loud

THE COMMON ROUND

By ISABEL INGLIS COLVILLE

WHOSE KITTEN IS SHE, ANYWAY?

In dealing with cats, one would need to be as many-sided as an octagon, for I have wished to be a Solomon, a psychiatrist and now I wish I were an animal linguist, for cats, at least, have a language as full of vowels and consonants and as capable of inflection as our own.

At present, two mothers—Woolly and Snip—are trying to bring up three kittens and a half in the way they should go and they are growing thin with the effort, while the kittens was fat and joyous and play as only kittens who have never been teased or hurt can play, but here's the rub—I, as assistant nurse and humble helper—being an outsider, get what most outsiders get, and maybe deserve, a cold stare and vocal protests, varied and emphatic.

We had to change the trio's names, they now rejoice in Towser—large, fluffy and tousled in spite of combing; Beauty—who is the prettiest kitten I ever saw, with a fine ruff, a little pointed face, tan gloves, boots and tail tip and a magnificent set of whiskers that turn straight in when he is fierce and resume normality when he is only serious. Patch, the third member, so named from being, in the words of Gilbert and Sullivan, a "thing of shreds and patches" of all colors, makes up for lack of beauty with being an athlete and an adventurer.

Then there is Snip's one darling, four inches long, a lovely grey with a white patch on the top of his head—so named Spot. This is the family with the exception of Amos in whom the milk of human kindness has curdled and who lures you with purrs and soft sibilants to pet him and then—bites you. And Wail, a large, very amiable, very gentlemanly yellow cat with whom the kittens take all kinds of liberties, such as stealing his food and biting his tail.

Now poor Snip, who is overwhelmed with her responsibility towards the midget, Spot, is yet of such a conscientious and helpful nature that she feels she must help Woolly bring up the triplets, hence she is becoming thinner every day from vibrating like a fussy pendulum between three and one.

Those bright, sunny days Woolly allowed me to put her family out in a warm, sheltered spot where she gave them gymnastic instruction on horizontal bars, in ballet dancing, in boxing and leap frog, for they turned Woolly's respectable back into a hurdle and "flew through the air with the greatest of ease". Coming into the house after one of these exhibitions, I found poor, tiny Spot crawling round and weeping bitterly. So, indignant at his mother for having fun and leaving him alone, I promptly carried the fat infant out and deposited him in the circle where all were resting after their labors. Oh me, alas and alack! I had evidently done something which forever put me outside the fraternity of assistant nurses. With a glare at me, in which disgust, reproach and scorn were equally cordent, she took her protesting infant by the back of the neck, marched into the house and deposited him under the kitchen stove, then with her head high and tail at an imperious angle, she rejoined her waiting school and no doubt treated

OUTLINES WORK OF U.N.R.R.A.

The United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration has regularly been scored in the press, and by former officers of the administration for inefficiency and mishandling of relief supplies. Reports appear of tables groaning with plenty while there was starvation in the street. Ugly rumors of black marketing of relief food and medicines have received more than casual attention in the press and over the radio. There has arisen in the minds of many considerable doubt of the validity of UNRRA.

It was to answer such doubts that Mr. Fiorella LaGuardia, former mayor of New York and now director general of UNRRA, spoke to press club at Washington, D.C. In a definitive outline of the organization and work accomplished by UNRRA he explained many discrepancies between the aim and accomplishments of UNRRA, and laid to rest stories of profiteering. We quote some excerpts from this address which help explain the purposes, methods, and organization of UNRRA.

UNRRA is an international relief agency of 48 nations and it is supported entirely by public funds. Each non-invaded member nation contributes two percent of its national income. The contribution is made by these nations in kind or in money. Ninety percent of that contribution is expended in the contributing nation, and ten percent is free money which the UNRRA is permitted to spend anywhere it can buy commodities or supplies that are necessary.

For distribution purposes, each receiving nation has an appropriation or an allocation made to it. The appropriations are allocated in terms of the amount of devastation, the area of population, the means of transportation, the financial situation of the country and the food situation. The countries for which UNRRA provides are Czechoslovakia, Poland, Austria, the Ukraine, Byelorussia, Greece, the Dodecanese Islands, Yugoslavia, Italy, Albania and China. In addition, there are limited programs of supply for smaller countries.

The food and supplies are delivered to the government of the receiving country and that government distributes them through the regular channels of trade. The proceeds from such sales, minus the expenses of distribution and administration, are used by that country for agricultural rehabilitation, and general reconstruction. Besides the UNRRA food that is sold by the governments of the receiving nations, there is also free distribution. According to Mr. LaGuardia, there have been no flagrant cases of black marketing or profiteering.

The United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration is an experiment in international co-operation. In some ways, it is more important than the United Nations Organization, that conclave of nations which has taken the place of the League of Nations. The success of UNRRA is important because if nations can co-operate in neighborliness, they most certainly can co-operate in making sure a lasting peace will prevail.

IS THIS CALLED PROGRESS?

As if the atom bomb wasn't enough, incautious words from Washington have disclosed that United States navy scientists have discovered a new, more deadly weapon, germ warfare. Said one Congressman, "They (the germs) are sprayed from airplanes that can fly high enough to be reasonably safe from ground fire. It is quick and certain death."

We've spent our meagre span on this planet becoming experts in sudden death. Let us now turn our talents to maintaining lasting peace. It can be done. It must be done.

them to a talk on the queer ways of humans.

At present there is a game of hide and seek going on but presently the time for the morning nap will be here and there will be a heap of cats piled up with either Woolly or Snip underneath and a vast purring like a small organ issuing from the heap.

Yesterday I was busy washing dishes when I heard growls, low and ominous, from the shed and thought I had better investigate. There was Snip and her infant in the door way, Snip well in advance, back arched like a bow and a ridge of stiff hair along her back; behind her, in exact imitation, was the baby, unsteady legs braced, about three hairs erect and a ferocious scowl on its small, grey face.

Looking for the cause of the excitement, I saw an old friend—a large, gentle, friendly collie who comes for my bones, or rather our bones, oh well, THE bones, standing grinning at the cats. Now Woolly just accepts Bounce as a part of the landscape and marches past him but Skip, being a young mother and terribly conscious of her responsibility feels she should fight everything in creation.

I spoke to Bounce who smiled, as all good dogs do, grabbed up the infant in my dripping hands and followed by Snip, who breathed imprecations and backed all the way in, restored peace to all concerned.

A kitten's education is a lovely thing to watch, they are scrubbed within an inch of their small lives, they are fed, played with and put to bed with a regularity that would put lots of us to shame and they are no end good company. This article is in response to innumerable requests,

He is impossible to manage since his sister has been born. He does everything we tell him not to do. He knows he will get a spanking if he crosses the street without asking permission, if he wades in mud puddles or if he disturbs the baby. Lately, he dares me to chase him up the middle of the street, deliberately sits in mud puddles, and shakes the baby's crib to disturb her when she's asleep. There seems no end to the number of bad things he does these days. It will certainly be a relief when he starts to school in September. We hope the teacher will be able to control Johnny then."

Johnny's change was a very natural one. For five years, he had been the main attraction in the home. Suddenly, baby sister demanded his mother's attention. Friends and neighbors came to see the baby. Conversations were about the new baby. Questions about Johnny were with reference to the little stranger. Johnny's home, his parents, friends and relatives had all changed. No one had time for him now. The only time anyone paid attention to him was when he did something wrong. Johnny was very lonely. He actually didn't mind the spankings much—at least he was getting some attention through his misdemeanors.

Instead of putting Johnny to one side after the baby arrived, it might have been better if his help had been used making him feel important and seem essential. This would place him on a higher, more adult level, as compared with the baby that needs so much special care. Johnny must feel needed, so employ his energies in little household tasks as though you simply couldn't get along without him. In place of slighting Johnny and trying to keep him from 'bothering' baby and mother, try elevating his position as a member of the household with added responsibilities. Answering the phone and door, delivering messages, running errands, etc., will be helpful and will include Johnny as a happy member of the changed home.

Frankie's mother visited the first-grade teacher and learned that her son was very careful about his personal properties. He had everything arranged in perfect order in his desk and his coat and cap were hung 'just so' on his hook in the cloakroom. The teacher complimented Frankie's mother on having taught Frankie the proper care of his possessions. She had noticed how pleased he was to be first getting on his coat without any help with buttons—which seemed to give him added prestige among his classmates.

Frankie's mother was honest in her confession that she had worked and worked with Frankie in an attempt to help him be orderly with his clothes and toys but with little success at home. As might be supposed, she was an efficient housekeeper with a place for everything and everything in its place. After giving Frankie ample time to put away his toys in the box provided for the purpose, she would patiently show him how it was done by doing it herself with minimum assistance from Frankie. Frankie had to be reminded time and time again to hang his clothes on the hook she had placed low for his convenience. Sometimes, he was out of the house in his play clothes, before his school attire was noticed in the usual heap on the floor. When this happened, his mother often called him back but most often she hung them up herself and waited till he was in the house next time before trying to reason with him on the subject.

After the visit to school, Frankie's mother knew that she, not Frankie, was to blame for his carelessness at home. She changed her tactics with him. She just left things where he left them until her regular time for cleaning then something always happened to the toys and clothing that were found 'out of place.' Of course Frankie had previously learned the convenience of order and was annoyed when he had to waste time looking for something he wanted in a hurry. Mother had decided to let Frankie practise the lesson she had taught him. He had thoroughly learned the lesson which he demonstrated by his conduct at school. It was time mother started a new lesson and allowed Frankie to assume the total responsibility of his personal belongings at home—which she did and he did.

Running motors within enclosed garages is asking for trouble. It is pointed out. Ventilation is essential to avoid possible ill-effects from this treacherous gas.

TO THE EDITOR

The editor, Newmarket Era and Express: The rather lengthy and pedagogic article appearing in the last issue of your paper dealing with the recent exhibition of the Newmarket Arts club would have appeared, if our vague knowledge of art and artists had not rolled from its chronic coma, to have been written by Michaelangelo or Rembrandt. And yet we feel that Rembrandt himself, had he been living, would have been a little more kindly and a trifle less bumptious in his criticism of this first unpretentious showing of this newly-formed group.

Criticism is useful if it is not destructive. The Newmarket Arts club was formed, as we understand it, to encourage art not to discourage it. None of its members have international reputations; few have had anything hung in the O.S.A. or the R.C.A., an honor or a privilege, which from recent airing in the press, not to mention our own opinion, is highly debatable. Not being as yet disciples of cubism, surrealism, or whatism, most of the members are aware of their individual and collective failings; none claim to have reached perfection in his own work or infallibility in the judgment of others. The latter pinnacle is attained only by self-election and is, we opine, a perch exceedingly precarious.

NOTICE
The club, as it becomes better organized, has time to formulate a program and secure suitable quarters to make it effective, will no doubt iron out its own difficulties which even the feeble eyes of its members are able to detect.

NOTICE TO HOMEBAKERS

OF COURSE WE LIKE TO SELL FLOUR (under normal conditions)

Making flour (the finest we know how) and selling flour (as much as we can) is admittedly our business. We're proud to say that for three generations Campbells have been milling and selling flour to thousands upon thousands of Canadian homebakers who have indicated that they prefer our flour to any other brand. Naturally (under normal conditions) we like to sell as much flour as homebakers can economically use:

BUT...

AS CITIZENS, AWARE OF WORLD CONDITIONS, WE DON'T WANT TO SELL FLOUR TO HOARDERS

We suggest you buy flour in small quantities and to make such purchases convenient for you we are packaging our flour in five and ten pound bags each with a convenient carrying handle. There is absolutely no need for panic buying of flour—no excuse for hoarding.

Canada will never be short of flour but to help the government to carry out their programme of exporting flour to starving people and for everyone in Canada to get his or her share now, citizens should be content to buy in small quantities. Under this plan, the supply your store has will go around with plenty for everyone.

We promise you that there will be another bag ready when your present supply is used.

SO...

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF OUR BAGS WITH HANDLES—BUY ONLY THE FLOUR YOU NEED

ALL LAKESIDE FLOURS ARE UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED ON A MONEY-BACK BASIS

Sincerely,

John Campbell
President

Additions to Rural Hydro Service

Your Commission desires to bring to the attention of Ontario farmers who have applied for Hydro service, a condition which is now seriously slowing up the building of rural extensions.

Essential materials and equipment are in extremely short supply, and the prospects of obtaining additional quantities in the immediate future are very meagre. Strikes in various basic industries and the extraordinary national demand are holding back the supply of all equipment needed.

While the Commission will exert every effort to obtain material and equipment for rural line construction, it can complete this year only a small part of the full program which it had planned. Consequently, many applications already approved will not, of necessity, be completed this year.

Your Commission will endeavour to serve all applicants in order of receipt of applications, giving preference to all farm and similarly essential applications over those for other types of service.

These facts are presented for your information, and with the expectation that they will enable you to bear more patiently with a situation beyond the control of your Commission.

Farmer To Come Into Own York County Council Told

Last Friday saw the close of the summer session of York county council. On that afternoon, Reeve Chas. Hooper, chairman of the council, told the members that the farmer was soon to come into his own.

"When that day comes, the laborer, who is now demanding better working conditions, will have to hustle to get a bite to eat. They are agitating for better working conditions now, but, the farmer will soon open the eyes of the country," commented the speaker. Mr. Hooper told the meeting that the Milk Producers Act was one of the most potent pieces of legislation.

In his report, Mr. Hooper showed that the prices of farm produce had dropped considerably from 1920. Butter is down 20 cents per pound, eggs 45 cents per dozen and milk is down three cents per quart. In the meantime it was shown that the prices of farm implements had gone the other way.

Horse rakes have risen $21 since 1933, and during the same period the prices of mowers have increased $34 and binders $110. The report showed that the price of wheat had gone from $3 in the '20's to $1.09 today. Mr. Hooper told the council that the prices of food-stuffs would jump 60 percent should the farmer be forced to revert to action similar to the industrial worker. He advocated action on the part of the federal government to adjust prices slightly. "If we could get prices for our produce which would enable us to employ help this country would become a Garden of Eden," he declared.

Council learned that the common barberry and the European buckthorn had now been added to the list of noxious weeds. It was shown that the presence of the former in a field of grain seriously cut the amount of grain harvested.

Last winter was a hard one according to the report of the Good Roads Commission. Members learned that the commission would need an extra $40,000 to make permanent repairs to the roads of the system. Gravel roads suffered the hardest, according to the report, and 62 percent of the budget of the commission has been spent on these roads up to date.

In again! Out again! That has been the fate of the grants to help the reconstruction of bridge approaches in York county. Last January, York county council, in a report of the special roads committee, agreed to contribute to the cost of walls on the bridge over the west branch of the Humber. Markham township representatives had also succeeded in getting a grant for the bridge on one of the roads being accepted back by the township from the county Good Roads commission. However, this session saw the whole matter postponed.

Now a policy has been set by which the county of York will assume responsibility only for roads which have arterial significance. These roads must connect centres of populations under this scheme. It was felt that the policy set in the January meeting would leave the county wide open. As it was, there were three other calls for assistance before the members, "which could not be turned down."

Action was recommended for those patients between "incurable" and "in need of hospital care." The hospitalization committee of the council suggested that consideration be given to establishing a hospital for the care of those patients. Reeve A. D. Evans, Newmarket, suggested that the warden and commissioners consider acquiring a hospital at that place for this purpose.

One of the places which would benefit should this move be made would be the Home at Newmarket operated by the county. Warden F. G. Gardiner favored the granting of monies to hospitals favoring and planning expansion. "We should not go into the hospital game ourselves," he warned.

DON'T WASTE FEED!
Feed is scarce, this season. Don't waste it! Make the most of what you have.

Here are two ways to do that. First, make sure you buy chicks with a real reputation for living, thriving, growing, making economical use of their feed. Second, raise them on short, tender, green pasture. That cuts your feed costs and raises you better, stronger chicks.

We have the chicks with the reputation for living. Hundreds—yes, thousands—of farm poultry raisers will tell you that Bray Chicks have "what it takes". If you have the feed to raise them, that's the kind of chicks to start!

Bray Hatcheries will be hatching right through June. We expect to have plenty of vigorous, husky, thrifty chicks for prompt shipment. Your order will receive prompt, courteous attention. If interested, do it now!

District softball perked up a bit last week with the announcement that a four club circuit had been set up with easy travelling and the teams apparently well matched. Newmarket Vets, who have been vainly seeking a franchise for weeks in some league, may soon be known as "McDonald's Orphans". We are informed that they knew the league was being organized, were invited by telephone to attend a meeting last week in Thornhill but failed to appear or let their intentions be known, so the clubs present went ahead and drew a schedule without the canaltowners.

Aurora has a home game next Tuesday in the Aurora park at seven o'clock. Little is known about Lansing, but a men's league functioned last week and their games will be played at the home of Earl Haig C.I. They will have lots of talent to choose from. Bunny Glover, Herb Farley, Charlie Proctor and others are said to be with the club. Thornhill will depend largely on veterans Nels Findlay and Har-

They know that Paradol will relieve them quickly of headaches, and the discomforts, as well as help to get rid of.

One girl writes:—"Until I used Paradol every month I suffered almost unbearable pains. It is the most quickly effective relief I have known and there is no disagreeable after effect."

Dr. Chase's PARADOL for Quick Relief of Pain

old Echlin and possibly some of the lads from Unionville. The Thornhill Community Association is backing the team and the park is the best in the circuit.

Langstaff will play its games on a newly built diamond near Langstaff corners. The outfield appears short and it looks right now as if it will need quite a bit of work. Norm Bowen and Bill Bowen, who performed for Charlie Ryan's Roselawn club last season, as well as several former Hill players, are expected to make up the Langstaff club. Mr. Ryan has no connection with the team and will concentrate upon lacrosse. The Aurora club will be pretty much the R.C.O.C. team plus one or two others. It's refreshing to see the league finally get underway after all the difficulties the boys have had.

Huck Young has resigned as coach of the Combines lacrosse club and last Friday in Richmond Hill the team was directed by Bert Middleton, Carville, a veteran gutted stick artist making a re-appearance in the national game after an absence of some years. We are sorry to see Huck leave for he is a pretty fine fellow and the story is that he differed with Stewart Stephens, the club's backer, on handling from the box. Be that as it may, Mr. Middleton did a swell job of handling things last week and the Combines really looked good against the Hill and drubbed them 10-2.

Jimmy Reid and the Bowen brothers are reported to have quit the team with Young and didn't play against the Hill, but may be back. Gerry Evans, McKenzie and Norm Alexander, the sub-goalie, were all in action as new additions and worked well, especially young Alexander who went for two fast goals. All is not well, it is said, in the camp of the Richmond Hill Young Canadians and it is rumored that Harold Weese, veteran Hill player, is through as coach. We won't be surprised, however, to see Harold back again. There's not much wrong with the Hill team that a few wins won't rectify.

Bill Buchanan was threatening to play again Friday night and Bill would be a valuable addition for the Young Canadians who are now garbed in nifty blue and gold sweaters with red numbers and crests. Bert Smithson, Kleinburg, who played with Weston and with Oshawa in the senior O.L.A. as well as professional, is now handling a whistle in the circuit and teamed with yours truly at the Hill last week. The lanky Smithson is well versed in the game and in good shape to follow play.

Fred Hall, Newmarket school principal and one of the boosters of sports for the kids in Newmarket, unknown to most in these parts, is an experienced lacrosse player, having played for Alliston, Caledon East and some of the clubs in the Peel County league. Mr. Hall has been added to the refereeing staff and makes his debut at Aurora tomorrow night when Woodbridge, which is leading the league, clashes with Combines in Aurora. Elmore Harding, Richmond Hill, better known as plain "Pug" Harding to the sporting fraternity, is the new first vice-president of the league and he brings to the post a wealth of experience that should guide the boys straight. For while everything is harmonious now, probably no sport has suffered more from internal bickerings all over Canada than lacrosse. A good strong executive that will stick to their guns and arbitrate impartially can do a lot to restore the prestige of lacrosse. On the other hand the fans and executives as well as players have to get away from petty bickering.

Al McNair, who is coaching Maple along with Cal Miller, is a former Orillia player and knows all the angles to the game. He has a steady influence when in the play, too, and the Maple boys have impressed those who have seen them as real contenders for district honors. They are well balanced in every spot but need a bit more condition and team play.

Capt. Bing Caswell, the old sports maestro of Newmarket camp, regarded by all in the district as one of "our boys", has received his discharge from the army and before taking over at Bloor C.I. in the fall, is assistant playgrounds director at Toronto Stanley Park in the heart of Toronto's industrial area. He expects to take on the task of supervising minor sports at Little Norway, next to the Toronto ball park. With 1,000 people living in the former air force huts, there is vital need for some supervised recreation. The hours are from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., a bit more strenuous than life at No. 23 B.T.C. last year but Bing likes being in the open and likes kids, which makes a nice combination. He says that he knows quite a few minor baseball clubs which would like to take a trip to either Aurora or Newmarket for exhibition games with no expense to the home club. Pitching, he says, makes the Toronto clubs look good but he feels the clubs would be fairly evenly matched. If George Haskett of Newmarket or Leonard Simmons of Aurora are interested in the idea they might let this corner know and we'll do the rest with Bing.

He says Bert Life, soccer and track impresario at the camp, was successful in passing his examinations in physical education at Toronto U and that Jack Life, one of your favorite hockeyists, is now at rehab school prior to proceeding on the same course. Both boys deserve a lot of credit.

Never say die was well exemplified in a midge baseball game between Markham and Stouffville, not long ago. With two out in the last inning, Markham was trailing the game by ten runs. They didn't give up but kept battling away and finally ended up taking the game by a one-run margin.

Best pitching performance on the North York minor baseball front was turned in last week by young Speedy Shpelman of Markham against Stouffville juniors. Shpelman (pronounced Spellman), who played with Milliken last winter, is hurling for Bob Burns' team this year and he mowed down 19 of 21 batters to face him in a game in which the score was 4-1, won by Markham of course. That's smart hurling in any company and Haskett and Holloway will have to watch out when the two teams meet.

Milliken, of course, is featuring Orval Rouse who twirled fine ball last season. Stouffville has Gordy Schell, another promising hurler. Ken Broughton, Tommy Dales and "Lefty" Gibson give Newmarket adequate hilltop work. Ron Simmons, Stew DeLaHaye, Jack Andrews will handle the Aurora assignments, while Moore, Stundin and others will work for Grant Nighswander in the junior series.

Echoes of the hectic Aurora Town Hockey league finals of last winter came back on Saturday as Herb Simpson, of Ballantyne fame, trotted his heavy draughts into town and walked off with some mighty big wins against the best competition in the Percheron and Belgian classes at the Aurora Horse Show. Hockey and horses are Herb's two big loves and he was tickled as punch about it all. Still has his eyes trained on winning the John W. Bowser trophy.

Herb wasn't the only well-known athlete to win prizes. Hughie Cousins, ace basketball of the Aurora high school team, was to the fore in the pony classes, while Ab Simon, of Barrie, skip of many a great curling win, did all right in the light horse classes. These were but a few of those present.

Mount Albert Canadian Legion has issued a challenge to Aurora

Legion for a series of softball games, and the Aurora lads, once they get some practice, will journey to the Mount on a date yet to be set to do battle.

Chances are that with the formation of a Canadian Legion in Newmarket, an all-legion softball league may be in operation before many weeks are past, with Aurora, Newmarket, Sutton, Mount Albert and Richmond Hill as possibilities. Three of the branches are interested and Aurora at least will take a crack at the All-Ontario Legion softball championship.

A few musts: lacrosse, Aurora, June 14, Woodbridge vs. Combines. Baseball, Aurora, June 17, Milliken vs. Aurora (mid-ge); Aurora, June 19, Milliken vs. Aurora (junior); Newmarket, June 19, Markham vs. Newmarket (mid-ge); Newmarket, June 20, Markham vs. Newmarket (junior). Softball, Aurora, June 18, league opener.

Does a softball hurt? Ken Clute of Barrie C.G.E. intermediates knows the answer. He suffered a broken jaw not long ago as he couldn't duck in time and got the mushball on the jaw.

OTTAWA LETTER

by
"Jack" Smith, M.P.
North York

Prime Minister Mackenzie King is on the way home and will receive a warm welcome from all members of the House of Commons. Last Monday, Mr. King entered upon his 20th year of office as prime minister of Canada and has held that office longer than the head of any other government in the world. Today he has held a similar office for 20 years.

Keen argument and speculation is still going on in Ottawa regarding the bill introduced in the House of Commons last week by Reconstruction Minister Howse on the control of atomic energy for peaceful industrial purposes and in the interests of living standards higher than the world has ever envisaged in the past. The reaction in other countries, on the whole, has been favorable and it is recognized that Canada has taken a definite step in the interests of international confidence and accord. Mr. Howse's assurances of future practical use of atomic energy to the furtherance of human happiness and prosperity were these:

"As regards the time by which there will be practical application of the material I would say it would be very short. The scientist is in about the same position today probably that electricity occupied when Faraday discovered the electro-magnet about 100 years ago. But... application of this energy will probably move very much faster than then."

"I would say that in five years it would certainly show practical applications. The first will probably be the direct transference of heat and once that has been worked out the application will follow logically because we are well advanced in using heat under complete control and transferring it to exact forms."

Government policy on redistribution this session of representation in the House of Commons is that there will be 255 members in the 21st parliament, compared with 245 members in the present house.

The broad basis of "representation by population" will be followed and some amendment to the British North America Act will be necessary.

By the 255-member solution, current awkward situations whereby Saskatchewan might have lost four seats and Manitoba three seats, and whereby Ontario might have held, through a constitutional technicality, eight more seats than her population would actually have entitled her to have in relation to Quebec's slightly lower population, will be circumvented. The task of achieving necessary redistribution should be considerably simplified by the policy laid down by the government.

On the basis of Canada's 1941 census population of 11,506,655 persons, in a commons of 255 members, the quota for the average sized constituency becomes around 45,100 persons.

Ontario, with 3,788,000 population, will have 83 seats, compared with 82 at the present time.

Quebec, with 3,332,000 population, will have 75 seats, compared with 65 as her basic representation since confederation.

Saskatchewan will lose only one seat of her present 21 members and Manitoba will lose one of her 17 seats. British Columbia will likely gain one or two seats above her present 16 members. Other provinces will be unchanged.

Subject to possible minor adjustments, representation by provinces in the 21st parliament, showing the population and number of seats, will be as follows: Ontario, 3,788,000, 83; Quebec, 3,332,000, 75; Saskatchewan, 896,000, 20; British Columbia, 81,800, 17; Alberta, 796,000, 17; Manitoba, 730,000, 16; Nova Scotia, 578,000, 12; New Brunswick, 457,000, 10; Prince Edward Island, 93,000, four, by special continued guaranteed representation.

Plan Drive For Members To Support V.O.N. Nurse

The Executive of the Victorian Order of Nurses, Aurora Branch, met Thursday evening and confirmed the following slate of officers for the year, pres., Mrs. Frances Lee; vice-pres., deferred; sec., Mrs. Margaret Dann; treas., E. R. Youngs.

SCORE RUMORS FIRM MOVING TO RICH. HILL

A report from Richmond Hill that the Hart Manufacturing Company (Canada) Limited might be located in Richmond Hill is an unfounded rumor according to Aurora officials. The agreement between the town of Aurora and the company has been forwarded to Hartford, Conn., for signature and the town council was advised at its last meeting that the contract was awaiting signature by company officials who were absent. The agreement is expected any day now in Aurora.

Last week the following appeared in the Richmond Hill Liberal: "A. R. Houghton, managing director of Hart Manufacturing Ltd., informed the Richmond Hill council through Reeve Neal this week that his company is considering the erection of a $60,000 plant in Richmond Hill that would employ about 30 people at the outset."

"It is a well established concern," said the reeve, "manufacturing switches for stoves and other electrical equipment. They would require and I believe already have their eye on a suitable site of about four acres."

"What do they want from the village?" the reeve was asked.

"What would council want to grant?" the reeve asked.

I understand Aurora has offered to give them the land for a site if they would build up there."

"Council decided to offer the Hart Co. a fixed assessment for a number of years."

FOUR VETERANS RETURN HOME

Four more Aurora men arrived home from overseas on Tuesday of this week. They are Capt. A. W. Boland, Pte. Cecil Atkinson, Gnr. Howard Lloyd and Pte. William Hope. All sailed aboard the liner Aquitania.

Capt. A. W. Boland, Canadian Dental Corps, enlisted three and a half years ago while practising dentistry here. After serving at Brantford and Camp Borden, he went overseas 16 months ago and has been stationed mostly in England. He expects to resume his practice here after discharge but right now is busy becoming re-acquainted with his small daughter, Linda, born shortly before he left for overseas.

Pte. Cecil Atkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Atkinson, flew from Montreal to his home. Formerly employed with Highland Oil, he enlisted in 1941 with the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps and was overseas close to four years. He saw service in Italy and Germany. A brother returned home early this year and a brother-in-law in May.

Gnr. Howard "Drummer" Lloyd, formerly in the ice business here, enlisted in 1940 in an anti-aircraft battery and went overseas in 1941. He saw action in the defence of Britain and from there went to Italy, later transferring to the western front. He is the son of Mrs. Harvey Lloyd and a brother, Cpl. Gardner Lloyd, returned from overseas last year.

Pte. William Hope is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hope, Port Perry, formerly of Aurora. He enlisted in 1943, going overseas just shortly before V-E Day with the infantry. He has served in the army of occupation.

It was the Aurora kids' third straight win. Gerry Simmons took the mound for Aurora and went the route working easily. Keith Kyle hammered out two homers in the Simmons' cause.

ANNIE COATES WEDS C. J. KERR

A pretty wedding took place at Aurora United church on Saturday, June 1, when Annie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Coates, became the bride of Cecil James Kerr, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Kerr and the late Henry Kerr. Rev. Roy Hicks officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in white satin with waist-length veil trimmed with lily of the valley. She carried a bouquet of red roses. Miss Doris Kerr, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and wore a gown of blue crepe with matching fingertip veil trimmed with blue. She wore a nosegay of spring flowers.

Mr. Ted Coates, brother of the bride, was best man. The ushers were Mr. Ben Coates and Mr. George Kerr.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Dawson's Grill. The bride's mother received in green and mauve crepe with black accessories and wore a corsage of yellow roses. Owing to illness, the groom's mother was unable to be present.

Following a short wedding trip the young couple will reside in Aurora.

COUPLE TO LIVE NEAR AURORA

A double ring ceremony was solemnized in St. Enoch's United church, Toronto, June 1 when Dorothy Marguerite, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Frank Allen of Toronto and William Harold Botham, only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Botham of Aurora, were married. Rev. H. S. Dodgson took the service in a setting of spring flowers. Mr. A. M. Ridley was at the organ, and the bride's uncle, Mr. H. D. Richards, sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white slipper satin, with a coronet of orange blossoms and pearls holding her full-length veil. She wore a necklace of pearls, and carried a garland nosegay of roses and lily-of-the-valley. The maid of honor, Miss Phyllis Smith, was gowned in bluish pink satin and carried roses. Miss Muriel Allen, bridesmaid, wore Alice blue satin and carried roses. Miss Gwyneth Allen was junior bridesmaid wearing bluish pink satin with roses and sweet peas. Both bridesmaids are sisters of the bride. Mr. Fred Hulme was best man and the ushers were Mr. William Milne and Mr. William Allen.

The couple left by motor to northern Ontario and Manitoulin Island, the bride travelling in pale pink with a light blue topcoat and navy accessories. They will make their home near Aurora.

INVESTIGATE ROBBERY

A sneak thief stole about $150 from roomers at the Queen's Hotel early Saturday morning. Four male roomers, who had left their room doors unlocked, awoke in the morning to find their trunks had been emptied, their clothes searched and that they were much poorer in pocket. County Constable Aubrey Fleury and Constable William Langman are investigating.

Number Of Entries Sets New Record At Show Revival

After an absence of five years, Aurora Horse Show came back on Saturday "bigger and better than ever." Receiving a last minute break in the weather, the show drew a crowd of around 3,500, and entries numbered 277 to set a new record.

Opening ceremonies were brief, with Warden Fred G. Gardiner, K.C., doing the official honors. Also taking part were President Elton Armstrong, Mayor Ross Linton and Agricultural Representative W. M. Cockburn. The dance in the evening drew a large crowd, and vendors of refreshments on the grounds were hard pressed to keep supply and demand even.

Capt. Dick Paton, M.C., was back at his old spot as ringmaster in the hunter classes and the judges, Group Captain Max Sisley and Lieut.-Col. Stewart Bate, well-known horsemen, were warm in their praise of riders and horses.

C. T. McMullen of Toronto, aboard Sky Line Tommy, bested a field of six with a faultless performance in the knock down and out event. The O. D. Robinson entries were to the fore throughout, taking four firsts, two seconds and two thirds, including the pairs and the hunt teams events. The Eaton Hall Farm trophy went to Mr. Robinson in the latter class.

Miss Rosalie Howell was the leading woman rider of the day. Harry Price and Sifton Stables scored heavily. Douglas Doner of Aurora bested a field of seven in the farmers and novice jumping contest. The 12-year-old youngster displayed real horsemanship.

Arm Broken
Excitement prevailed momentarily in the hack class as the winner, Campion, ridden by Major Bud Baker, shied, leaped the enclosure and knocked down a spectator, George Ellis of Toronto.

Combines Swamp Hill 10-2 To Wipe Out Old Score

Combines last Friday night gained revenge for the defeat hung on them in Aurora by Richmond Hill intermediates, when they swamped the Hill team 10-2 at the Hills. It was Combines all the way, and their passing plays were the best of the season. It was 4-1 at the quarter, 5-2 at the half, 8-2 at the three-quarter pole, and 10-2 at the finish.

Scotty Johnston paced the Combines' attack with three counters, Norm Alexander went for two, and Harry Burton, Jeff Burton, Hugh Kerr and Jeff Elliott netted one apiece. Herb Rose and Jack Hall scored the Hill counters.

Hughie Kerr was the badman of the night, drawing three penalties. In the final quarter, fisticuffs started between Gerry Evans and goalie Alf Stong of the home club, both drawing penalties. The Combines failed to score with Stong off.

Bert Middleton handled the Combines from the bench and Evans and McKenzie, two new recruits to the Combines, filled in. Norm Alexander, sub-goalie, played on the forward line and was one of the best in action.

The following are the home dates for Combines of the North York intermediate lacrosse league to be played at Aurora arena: June 14, Woodbridge at Combines; June 21, Richmond Hill at Combines; June 28, Maple at Combines; July 5, Woodbridge at Combines; July 26, Woodbridge at Combines; August 9, Richmond Hill at Combines; August 23, Maple at Combines.

Tomorrow evening Combines meet the league-leading, undefeated Woodbridge team at 8:30 p.m. in what should prove a standout contest. Jack Elder, Bill Norton, Son Rowntree and Bill Cox have been outstanding; to date for the southerners, who have defeated every team at least once.

Last week the Combines bounded up the ladder by trouncing Richmond Hill 10-2 in the Hill and they are confident they can maintain the pace. Fred Hall, Newmarket, and Ab Hulse, Aurora, have been named by President Charles Rowntree to handle the contest.

He rejoiced to see his music teacher of those days, Miss Leek, in the congregation.

The subject of Dr. Smith's address was World Wide Missions and everyone received a blessing and a challenge from this stirning at 7 o'clock. There will be a male choir. The Sunday-school will be at 1.30 as usual.

The children's service last Sunday was well attended. The church was lovely with spring flowers, and the birds loaned by Harry Draper sang beautifully.
The children's choir was trained by Mrs. Orval Jaques and was appreciated by all.

News On Recreation

By Dick Mather, Recreation Co-ordinator

We are trying to form a transportation committee, which will primarily look after the two younger baseball teams and any other organizations who are not in a position to help themselves. (Cars, and a driver included, are needed to take these young lads to play in nearby communities, Richmond Hill, Aurora, Stouffville, etc. If you can help, by taking one trip a season, it will spread the load around, and will enable the kids to carry on. Until a committee is formed I will be glad to accept and transmit your offers to help.

Swimming. For the program this summer we will need at least two assistants who will be able to give part time help. Classes will probably be in the morning for three days a week. The Red Cross Society is providing a short three-evening instructors' School in Toronto, June 24, for those intending to help, or lead water programs. The local Red Cross will cover all expenses for those recommended by the Newmarket recreation council. Those who are interested are asked to meet with me at the back office of the fire hall on Monday at 7.15 p.m.

Track and field. Milton Wallace will be at Pickering College cinder track Monday evening at 7.30 p.m. to help coach those who are interested in running. Those that are in fair condition already might look forward to two track meets in Hamilton, Dominion Interscholastic on June 29, and the Dominion Championships on July 6. For those who don't feel ready to tackle such competition yet there will be other events taking place during the summer.

Mr. Wallace is a runner of considerable skill and ability. He first started running in 1935 and in 1936 he had improved so rapidly that he was able to represent Canada at the Olympic games. At the present moment he is active in track and intends to participate in several events during the coming season.

Baseball. The teams now organized are well under way, although both the Vets and ladies are still anxious to get into a league. The midgets and juniors are well set up except for the matter of transportation.

However, there are still many youngsters and perhaps others who want to form a town league of some sort. But they need umpires, someone who can give one or more evenings or afternoons a week, or perhaps a manager who can officiate too.

PLAY BEGINS JUNE 15

All three courts of the Newmarket tennis club will open for play June 15, members of the club are advised. It was hoped to have the courts in shape earlier but more work was required than had been expected. Tennis instruction will be given at the courts Saturday, June 15, to which all are welcome. Boys and girls 15 and under will be instructed from 9.30 to 10.30 a.m. and others from 10.30 to 11.30 a.m. An exhibition match is being arranged for the future.

Hon. Angus Macdonald, now premier of Nova Scotia and formerly minister of national defence for naval affairs in Canada's wartime government, has been speaking words of beauty and inspiration directly to the graduates of a Nova Scotian university but indirectly to all of Canada's young people: "The first matter that I ask you to consider is the challenge to public service and leadership that many of you will shortly hear, and hearing will, I hope, answer. The great problems of your generation will be the problems of government. There are those who show great interest in the sort of house they live in or in the condition of the clubs to which they belong but who look on government as something remote and inconsequential. The great issue of making war and the equally great issue of framing an abiding peace have to be decided by governments. And above and beyond war and peace governments are, by the very nature and complexity of modern life, compelled to extend the scope of their activities." The interest which the young people of Canada and particularly the young veterans of Canada are showing in public affairs now is one of the most encouraging things on the Canadian scene.

SUNDAY — marks the opening of our Annual Prophetic Bible Conference—one week only. We have been most fortunate in securing the ministry of Capt. Rev. J. F. Holliday, B.A. When we contacted him many months ago he had but two weeks free, one of these he graciously gave to us. He comes to us with a record of unusual blessing upon his ministry. He has been a successful pastor, evangelist and Bible teacher. He is now the general secretary of the Russian Missionary Society in North America. He has travelled in many lands of Europe and pictures which he took of these lands will be shown each night in addition to the timely messages that he will give on world events as they are related to the fulfilment of God's word. The week will also feature the outstanding artistry in song and music of Rowland Hill, Vancouver, B.C., recently pianist and soloist, for The Rock of Ages Hour, London, England.

SUNDAY, 7 P.M. — "The fire still burns" or "The present state of evangelical work in Europe."

WEDNESDAY, 8 P.M. — "Facing the Russian bear."

Round The World With Alcohol Switzerland

We can still find the temperance movement very much alive in Switzerland. There, the most constructive work last year was in connection with the alimentary use of fruits. This question has become increasingly vital to the Swiss nation while the European War has continued, as Switzerland relies so much on food imports, and so could not continue to use her own precious fruit crop so wastefully as in pre-war times in the production of alcoholic liquors.

A pamphlet published (in German) in Zurich last year had as its joint authors Monsieur Kellerhals, the director of the Swiss Federal Alcohol Monopoly, and his chief colleague, Dr. V. J. Steiger. This pamphlet gives, among other most interesting statistics, the figures for the production of fruit (in terms of wagon-loads) in 1943 with a detailed percentage analysis of the various products of the entire crop, namely, fresh fruit, dried fruit and "concentrates," fermented cider, distilled liquor and other (non-alcoholic) products such as vinegar.

Of these five groups, the figures for distilled liquors are by far the most interesting, as in 1943 a rule came into force whereby only fruit quite unfit for any other purpose was to be used for distilling. The result was that in 1943 only 1.1 percent

THIS FATHER'S DAY

SUNDAY, JUNE 16

There is an air of jubilation this Father's Day. For after too many years, fathers are once again united with their families... rollicking with the youngsters they dreamed of in their fox holes. To all our veterans... but especially those who are the parents of our new generation... we owe more than a debt of gratitude. It is our time now to show by tangible means how deep and sincere is our appreciation.
